Andrew Thompson: Was appalled at what he witnessed at the City Council meeting on 3/7/23. Shared that there appeared to be an ulterior motive. Concerned about the loss of media and materials if CSPL were to merge with KDL.

Liz Johnson: Cautioned the CSPL in merging with KDL, if locked in, the commitment is for 15 years. Stated no representation with KDL.

Rose Powell: Questioned the library boards role call practices.

Kevin Green, Algoma Township Supervisor: Would like to continue having conversations about Algoma Township partnering with CSPL. Algoma Township would be able to contribute approximately $225,000 to the library's budget.

Kathy from Cedar Springs: Noted problems with manager and mayor of Cedar Springs.

Good problems with having Algoma join. Financially, he shared that the library is in the black and the rainy-day fund was also noted.

Dwyane: Appalled at the meeting held by the City of Cedar, does not recommend services with KDL due to the length (15-year contract) and content of some materials.
